

Chief Warrant Officer 4 Nelligan assumed the duties as the 2nd Command Chief Warrant Officer of the 81st Regional Support Command (RSC), United States Army Reserve in March of 2012. In this position he is responsible for the support and assistance of all Army Reserve Warrant Officers within the Southeastern United States. He also serves as the senior warrant officer advisor to the Commanding General of the 81st RSC and the Command Chief Warrant Officer of the Army Reserves.

Prior to his selection he was the Supply and Service Officer for the 405th Combat Support Hospital from October 2010 to March 2012, Officer in Charge of the Northeast region for the Strength Management Initiative Task Force and Command Chief Warrant Officer of the 804th Medical Brigade from 1 October 2008 until 30 September 2010, and the Command Chief Warrant Officer of 94th Regional Readiness Command from 1 February 2006 until its deactivation on 30 September 2008.

CW4 Nelligan enlisted in the Army in March 1982, completing Basic Training and Field Artillery Cannon Crewman AIT at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. He was assigned to the 3/35th Field Artillery (8" self propelled) West Germany, where he served as an Advanced Party, Gun Driver, and Battery Commander's Driver. He left active duty in 1982 and joined the 340th General Hospital and was sent to the United States Army Medical Equipment and Optical school where he completed both the basic and advanced courses and was named honor graduate. He has served in Honduras and Guatemala providing medical equipment maintenance support to the respective taskforce. He was appointed as a WO1, Health Services Maintenance Technician in June 1990 and was assigned to the 819th Station Hospital which converted to the 405th Combat Support Hospital in 1992. He was activated in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and deployed to Kuwait in 2002. His assignments included Property Book Officer, Supply and Services Officer, and Unit Logistician (Forward).

CW4 Nelligan has completed the Warrant Officer Senior Staff Course, Warrant Officer Staff Course, Officer Advanced Course, Master Fitness Trainer Course, Medical Logistics Management Course, Medical X-Ray Survey Techniques Course, Health Services Maintenance Technician Course, US Customs Border Agent Course, and United States Department of Agriculture Food Inspector Training Course.

CW4 Nelligan's awards and decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal with 4 Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Reserve Components Achievement Medal with 7 Oak Leaf Clusters, National Defense Service Medal with 1 Bronze Star, Global War On Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal, Armed Forces Reserve Medal with Bronze Hourglass and with "M" Device, Noncommissioned Officer's Professional Development Ribbon with Numeral 2, , Army Service Ribbon, Army Overseas Service Ribbon, Army Reserve Component Overseas Training Ribbon with Numeral 2 , Driver Badge with Driver-W Bar.

CW4 Nelligan received an Associates Degree in Biomedical Equipment Maintenance, and 2 Bachelors Degrees; one in Applied Behavioral Studies and the other in Liberal

Studies, and a Masters in Business Administration with a Health Care Concentration.

He is the past Chairman of the Bristol Veterans' Council, President of the New England Chapter of the Warrant Officer Association. He is a life member in the Reserve Officers Association (ROA), Army of the United States of America (AUSA), Military Officers Association of America (MOAA), Disabled America Veterans (DAV), American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), 94th Infantry Division Association and Dayspring Lodge #30 Freemasons.

In his civilian capacity he is the Director of Operations for Aloricares, a division of Alorica that is the premier work at home employer of Disabled American Veterans. CW4 Nelligan is married to Mrs. Nancy Nelligan and resides in Bristol CT, with 3 children, Darby, Thomas, and Owen.